General Comment

Generative ai runs the risk of stealing from artists.

Also google uses ai to silence competitors.

I don't want companies like google to have free reign to use my pictures, my artwork, my writing to train a.i and essentially steal my hard work for a profit. If I wanted to make open source material i would do so and there would be DIALOG as opposed to how big tech companies simply scrape my work without permission.

If anything more regulation needs to be put on big tech.
