General Comment

This is not the proper use for AI. It's supposed to be used to assist and aid, not entirely replace groups of people. You're telling everyone it's okay to repeatedly take everyone's property to train for something you don't need such as making sure art and entertainment can be mass produced constantly to the point many will grow weary and tired of new content. If you are worried about foreign entities, I doubt needing copywritten works would be needed. Fighting an opposition like that needs the AI to be used for military purposes. Please don't over abuse AI for purposes such as this.
