General Comment

I find the AI Action Plan to be ridiculous. America has always faced governments and entities who use less than honorable methods to achieve their goals and has never had to stoop to the same lack of standards. Our rights as citizens should include the right to monetize our own artwork without some corporate entity stealing it and profiting from our hard work and creativity. Our art is like gold and you are having a plastic race expecting us to diminish the quality and value of our work

Sincerely, an American artist
