General Comment

I am a freelance illustrator, small business owner, and american citizen. Without clear and transparent control over my intellectual property, work and information, my ability to continue my business is in jeopardy.

By granting any group free reign over things that, in every single other context, are considered my property is unethical and unnecessary. Without any protections in place we indanger small business owners, average americans and national security.

I cannot, with clear conscience, support the Artificial Intelligence Action Plan
