General Comment

A.I. is nothing more than a content theft machine that hurts small artists who don't have the financial means to take companies that use it to court. This is a democracy, not a monarchy! Follow the god damn rulings the judicial branch issued. Remember, that killer who got real close to saving this country last year was one of your supporters. It ain't the Left you should be scared of, it's the Frankenstein's monster that you created.
