General Comment

Do not allow any big tech to steal from and profit off artists. Allowing this is a crime against the human soul. If they are allowed to continue plundering it's going to plunge us into an era of creative bankruptcy if we aren't already running towards it at breakneck speed. Everything that people love and makes life worth living is made by artists. If you allow this to be destroyed and cannibalized everything will decay into empty worthless garbage. Real artists will wither, lose passion or stop sharing their works and everything will f&^%
