General Comment

This bill would be devastating to not only the creative industry but anyone who creates a digital product. Scraping online work is akin to stealing and would deprive all but the owners of the ai of any monetary gain, leaving artists, writers, software developers, and many more unable to make a living. Do not allow a select few to exploit the masses for what would end in a catastrophic implosion of not just the economy, but creativity and a way of life. Do not pass this bull
