General Comment

Ai generation can only be achieved through theft. AI pieces are not created, they are copied. This is textbook copyright infringement. The fact it is stolen by a machine instead of a human changes nothing. Art is sacred. It is a human right as well as a human necessity. AI can only be used to steal. A human needs to be in control in order for a piece to be derivative or inspired. A machine can not be inspired, it can merely reflect what it sees.
