General Comment

Hello,

Artificial Intelligence, as sold to us by Big Tech is just the latest in a series of grifts, following cryptocurrency and NFTs. It is sold as id its the future but burns out in only a few years. We do not need a robust action plan for AI. Microsoft is slowing down the construction of data centers becuae it doesn't see AI growing as far as its proponents claim. Generative AI is a fad that will pass, and in the meantime it will harm working people who make art and writing that the AI takes to train on..

Just let it fade away quietly, like it is bound to do anyway.

Thank you,
