General Comment

AI is doomed to fail. Its harmful to our government, our industries, and its employees. It has not turned a single profit in years and hopes to make that money by fleecing, stealing, and robbing the American people blind.

It destroys our environment, requires power that is unsustainable even if we somehow managed to retroactively mine fossil fuels we've already used (impossible). AI isn't AI. It generates keywords that a good google search already does for cheaper environmental impact.

It harms our celebrities. It harms our working class. It harms everybody. Its a literal version of a thousand monkeys with infinite typewriters and time. And all it produces is softcore pornography for those unable to get a girlfriend.

Let this generative slop die like the market demands instead of propping up a failed system at the expense of REAL HARD WORKING AMERICANS!
