General Comment

As a content creator, author and artist, I do not permit OpenAI or any other AI company the rights to reproduce, train on, or otherwise utilize my work in any way into perpetuity. I retain all rights to my work, which in no way was purchased or otherwise legally acquired by OpenAI or any other AI company; the use of my work without permission is a violation of US Copyright law and should remain federally enforced as this.

This technology is not being used appropriately and is enriching thieves while impoverishing creators.
