General Comment

i am part of a few large comunitys of ppl who do artwork for side money, for fun, or to make a living. this includs writing drawing painting and more. there in noone that i know who wants their works stolen by a soules emotionles unimaginitive computer to create a mimicry of art. noone in any art comunity whos worth getting a comission from would ever want their work taken by AI, even if they where payed for it.
