General Comment

Hi, I just want to say, please, please don't do this. Copyright law exists for a reason, and allowing specifically AI and only AI to circumvent it grants a colossal competitive advantage to people who are already at the top - to the detriment of the most economically vulnerable of us. If AI is to be the future, then let's keep it ethical - and that includes moderating its ridiculous energy usage and considering the livability of our planet. Thanks for reading, and be well.
