General Comment

AI does nothing but steal from artists who get nothing for it. Copyright will mean nothing if AI is allowed to copy from artists with impunity, jobs will be lost, and they will no longer be able to sustain themselves with their craft. Already this is being felt, by hardworking artists who are hundreds of times better than a program that takes in art and spits out a lifeless piece that is often wrong. Let artists do what they do best and pay them for their work!
