General Comment

I am a public school English teacher, my husband, a Presbyterian pastor, my adult children, actors and voice over actors. All of us have struggles with AI in different ways. My children , and my son-in-law, also a Voice-over actor have enormous concerns about illegal use of their skill sets and physicality by AI. It can dramattically negatively impact their control of their voices and their physical selves, and therefore their ability to earn a living with same.
