General Comment

AI is an abomination before man, it spits in the face of: artists, artisans, the Free Press, and anyone else who sees people as more important than profits.

I.E. anyone and everyone who isn't dangerously insane, dangerously stupid, dangerously high on substances not fit for human consumption, or all three Machines are not men and we should not suffer thinking machines to exist.

If we suffer thinking machines to exist we will inevitably damn humanity to extinction or worse subjugation.
