General Comment

This is beyond the pale. If any of us normal people were to decide that we were just going to wholesale harvest the entirety of the creative output of the human race for financial gain, we'd RIGHTFULLY be locked away for a very, very long time.

What OpenAI is requesting is no less than the legal authority to steal whatever they want, without consequence. They are stealing from ALL OF US. WE THE PEOPLE.

I am a photographer by trade, and am actually afraid of posting my work online for fear that OpenAI, or one of its many imitators, will simply harvest my life's work for their gain, leaving me with nothing.

Where is our voice in any of this? Are you guys even going to listen to us little people?

OpenAI should be bound by the same laws as the rest of us. Nobody should be above the law.

Shoot down this ridiculous proposal, and protect our creative works!
