General Comment

AI runs on the same ideologies of a cancer cell and a robber baron. It is a disgusting, thieving, gluttonous mess of overhyped garbage run by con artists which wants to take the soul of humanity and turn it into grey blobby slop, stealing art from the people, and force us to serve as feudal serfs solely in hard labor.

AI should be taking care of tasks like production lines and laundry. It should not be stealing writing, music, and visual art. And that is what the foul, soulless goons at OpenAI want.
