General Comment

- * I do not believe AI holds a place in the future of the US
- * AI steals from my livelihood as an American and profits off of theft
- * AI is overhyped and is fleecing the eyes of the American public

This is a terrible idea. Copyrighted material has laws and regulations around them, no amount of "national security" should allow companies to steal content from others hard work to train it to COPY from what it has learned.

This is a dangerous game to play, and a precedent we shouldn't set.
