General Comment

The use of copyrighted content is theft, even in the use of AI. Rather a computer is using the data to generate new data or not. Let me put it this way, if I download a movie. And then translate it to a new codec. Every pixel is the same. Every FRAME is the the same, yet it is completely original data. Is that not piracy? No, the FTC would kill me for sharing EVERY SINGLE FRAME of a movie. Rather it was unique data or not. Same way if I would pursue an AI creator for publishing MY CONTENT in their model. Rather they meant harm by it or not, it is copyrighted content that belongs to me. That they are attempting to profit off of. Do not let this happen, there are many industries that WILL peril in result.
