General Comment

I work as an artist where more than 50% of my work is protected by my various employers but still can be publically viewed as my own. To see the sheer fleecing of the public on the views of AI as it continues to ravage my industry is downright pathetic and disgraceful. AI steals from my livelihood as an American and profits off of theft. If that alone does not impact your views on AI then you've already drank the poisoned kool-aid. I will not sit idly by and watch my work be used for AI purposes without my permission.
