General Comment

Hello, I am a writer and educator. As a writer, I resent the implication that my intellectual property is not mine to protect. Why? Because Sam Altman has more money than me and can afford more lawyers?

As an educator I am seeing the deleterious effects of AI on students. They use it to cheat, deceive, and disguise their own meager efforts.

LLMs “learn” by stealing. This cannot be sanctioned. But of course I know that the Trump administration is designed, like AI itself, to enable theft without penalty for the ultra-rich. That doesn’t mean I have to approve.
