General Comment

Why would anybody think this is a good idea? This is clearly a dictatorial takeover by big tech oligarchs who want nothing more than the complete and indiscriminate ability to do quite literally whatever they want. If this passes, our democracy will be forever beholden to big tech and those who wish the domination of the US political landscape. Our democracy is already in one of the worst spots it has been in since the days of the Gilded Age, and this is merely an extension of the Gilded Age by attempting to make the United States a technocratic oligarchy ruled by those who quite literally only care about profits for themselves and their allies. This will never benefit ANY REGULAR AMERICAN CITIZEN. This will only benefit the uber wealthy who already have by in large the most power in this nation. This is such a disgusting joke, just like this country is under the Trump administration.
