General Comment

- * I do not believe AI holds a place in the future of the US
- * AI steals from my livelihood as an American and profits off of theft
- * AI is overhyped and is fleecing the eyes of the American public.

No entity, whether an individual, company, corporation, or beyond should have the ability to use copyrighted material with immunity. People who create content that is copyrighted should be paid for their work and their efforts. It would lead to terrible abuse which defeats the purpose that copyrights were created for in the first place.
