General Comment

"...and to ensure that unnecessarily burdensome requirements do not hamper private sector AI innovation."

Copyright is not an unnecessary burden. Stop letting greedy billionaires steal everything. The only way generative AI can continue to exist is if it STEALS copyrighted work for profit. It's only a machine that plagiarizes existing work and nothing else. It sucks and everyone hates it.

Don't allow OpenAI steal every copyrighted work for profit. It's a business model based entirely on theft and does not deserve to exist.
