General Comment

No more AI slop. Every day on my way to work I pass by huge advertisements in the subway made with AI-generated art and it fills me with absolute rage and disgust. We have to want better for each other as human beings and not surrender our hearts and minds to an algorithm. We have to want to think. We have to want to dream. AI joined with the power of unregulated hypercapitalism will rend our souls from us. Please don't let this come to pass. Thanks!
