General Comment

Stop this. Enough theft. There is NO reason to steal people's hard work and legitimate creativity to make mindless, soulless slop. Just pay some artists who need the money, stop cutting corners and being cheap. This will ruin generations and there will be nothing creative or original anymore. Students will no longer be able to write their own papers, and these students will be the future's doctors, who will not know a single thing because "AI" told them what to write. The future will be ruined with AI. Stop this. ENOUGH
