General Comment

I do not believe AI holds a place in the future of the US

AI steals from my livelihood as an American and profits off of theft.

AI is overhyped and is fleecing the eyes of the American public.

AI is a speculative market similar to cryptocurrency and NFTs, with false promises to fool the public and huge legal problems by enabling them.

If you can't run a business without stealing from people, its not a business, its organized crime.
