General Comment

AI is not the future, it is simply a way to steal the work of authors, artists, and creators of all kinds. Copyright is a vital element of American industry, and allowing AI companies to unilaterally bypass it will cause enormous damage to the American economy. I do not wish to surrender the rights to my labors to any AI company, that is only interested in stealing from hardworking Americans. Do not allow these Silicon Valley salesmen to destroy the livelihood of millions of Americans who contribute to the beautiful artistic legacy of this great country.
