General Comment

Generative AI (genAI) creates no value and is a technology built on theft and illegal use. It is a technology built with the sole purposes of scamming or creating illicit deepfake imagery (such as generating revenge porn), and has no real uses outside of causing harm. The datasets are scraped from the copyrighted works of artists, from leaked medical records, from every single photo ever uploaded (every selfie, every family photo, every instance of gore or porn that has been uploaded to the internet, including illegal content). These datasets are created from images that the companies who sell these worthless products never had permission to use and often never SHOULD have used. genAI should never be at the forefront. Techbros should not be rewarded for their failures to be a part of humanity. They should never be rewarded for having subjected their fellow man to this glaringly obvious issue of privacy, safety, and labor rights.
