General Comment

AI is a dead end. Its only skill is regurgitating what is in the past, and it does that poorly. It's sugar coated lies and it causes harm.

It will not improve the average American's life, and instead steals from their carefully fostered skills to create something subpar. Do not allow it to steal more easily. Do not allow openAI and others to use the labor of many to bring profit to few. AI will not help bring food to tables or wellbeing to a soul.
