General Comment

I can't claim to be the smartest guy out there, but even I can see that allowing AI to take over our lives is going to be a very bad thing.

Now I'm just a humble hobby artist, but the recent flood of AI generated content has been very discouraging, confusing, and infuriating.

It's bad enough as is, but effectively nullifying copyright laws and allowing it to simply steal and use a person's work will only hurt the people who are putting thought and care into their creations! The only people who want this are those who want to legally steal from people.

WE THE PEOPLE DO NOT WANT THIS!!
