General Comment

This is nothing but unchecked corruption. They seek immunity because they know what they are doing is theft and would not fly in court. Trump is selling your data and livelihood to the highest bidder. Every industry that relies on IP and copyrighted works is gravely threatened by this order. This isn't just about indie artists anymore. Disney, Paramount, the entire film and music industries will be greatly damaged. This order is not, and never will be, necessary for AI companies or technologies. It has absolutely nothing to do with national security. These are blatant lies and there was not even an attempt to make them look convincing in the slightest. That's how confident Trump is in his power. I urge you, especially those harmed most by this order, to oppose it. Do not stand by while this illegal and immoral behavior happens. You have the power to stop it.
