General Comment

This is beyond horrendous. This is horrifying to any and all artists, authors, scientists, engineers, EVERYONE. This is blatant robbery of the arts and humanities. An attempt to steal and copy and reproduce POORLY any and all published public information. It is WELL known that AI is widely inaccurate. AI is an attempt to rob the modern population of critical thought and literacy skills. AI is producing brain dead, unable to function teenagers who rely on it for any and all input and knowledge. AI is robbery of thought and function. It is an attempt to steal the human consciousness and replace all the humanities and arts with mass produced, horrendously made products that rob true HUMAN artists of their own creations. This is robbery of the soul. This is robbery of consciousness.
