General Comment

I do not believe that allowing AI companies to freely steal and infringe on the copyright of artists around the globe unpunished is even remotely a good idea. Ever since its birth it has done nothing good but be a glorified theft machine that constantly serves wrong answers on the front page of Google. No amount of "further refinement and tweaking" will make it the dream program they promise it to be if it can't even slightly deliver that now.

Do not screw over the lives, jobs, and hobbies of artists around the world. Do not allow the theft and crime to continue unadulterated. Do not let this plan pass.

The whole world will suffer for it.
