General Comment

I am a professional artist. My work appears all over the Internet. My unique style needs to be protected and the content of my clients needs to be protected. It's unconscionable that a machine could steal and re-distribute my work. This needs to be shut down. Human work must not be used to derive other work. We are not beholden to the machine. We are humans. We are unique. There's no excuse for stealing our work.
