General Comment

This is not fair use, it is theft of intellectual property from hard working members of the public. Corporations should not have the right to avoid consequences of utilizing the works of others without express consent of the holder of the intellectual property. The precedent set by this executive order erodes the right of people in our country to be able to hold and protect the rights of their works. It allows corporations to do as they please with no regard or respect for the rule of law Americans follow and respect.
