General Comment

AI can't &^% think. companies can't &^% MAKE AI or LLMs without training them on bodies of stolen content. that's not a workable business model. I'm a writer and I've spent thousands of hours thinking, creating, making work, all for some &^% at openAI to be like. hey I didn't pay for this but I own it and I'm gonna feed it to my AI and my AI is gonna &^% out something that's not even recognizable as human speech. are you &^% kidding me. go to hell with this bull&^%.
