General Comment

This is a joke. This is a nightmare.

AI relies on work produced by the labor of artists to produce the value it offers, but it offers those artists no value in return. If artists had the capability to steal from corporations in that way, the perpetrators would be prosecuted. Instead here we are - requested to comment on explicitly legalizing every form of theft in the other direction.

This act will be the beginning of the disinformation age. Every tool of wisdom has now become a tool of hate. Welcome to our new Hell.
