General Comment

I don't do any work in art at all but I am 100% against AI. I will not buy or partake in anything involving AI. If any websites start using it, I will delete my account. To me, it seems very overhyped anyway. I have not seen it do anything good at all. The "art" it makes is unappealing. The voices it makes never sound human. It always looks and sounds off. When it writes stuff it never sounds good. It is overhyped. So on top of just not being really good at anything, it steals from actual human's work. I would rather give jobs to humans who can actually do a good job.
