General Comment

Do NOT remove the few regulations on AI, nor let AI cooperations just ignore copyright. This will hurt everyone, but it will hurt small creators the most!!

Genuinely, Disney can always pump out a mediocre movie and make millions. A YouTube starting off will have no chance against a team who all vet AI slop and produce multiple videos away, not even considering that AI has targeted children, and the effects on a constant stream of nonsense colors and undefinable characters can only turn out horribly for America's future.
