General Comment

The way that this opens the doors for AI to legalize the theft of work from artists worldwide is unjustifiably bad. Not only is it bad for artists' incomes, but it's also awful for the environment. There is absolutely no reason that we should be allowing this to come to fruition. AI does not have a thriving future, at this rate, and is largely becoming a scam at the expense of our tax money and livelihoods as Americans. Please reconsider this dangerous path.
