General Comment

Ridiculous that we allowed this technology to be called "AI" when all it does is predict what words/symbols come next. It's not intelligent. It's not even reliably accurate. It's a waste of energy, water, and time. It's the new hot dot-com bubble. It's bringing nothing new or useful to our species nor to our society. It's overhyped beyond the point of farce. Real Onion s&^%.
