General Comment

The push for AI is legalized theft by irresponsible tech businessmen who bet on a dead end and are trying to cram it down our throats by any means.

Legalizing theft for giant corps and ignoring our entire tradition of copyright is the height of hypocrisy and frankly traitorous to art and the human race.

Disgusting and predatory, this would directly cut into and impede my small business in a wildly illegal fashion. The people behind this disgraceful scam are trying to use clout, bluster, and special access to pillage their fellow Americans without remorse.
