General Comment

This action plan is a disaster that's either waiting or demanding to implode on itself, as it will make creatives like us humans suffer. We can't afford--literally and figuratively--to suffer through anymore AI's restless consumption of creative integrity. Even if it isn't in the name of artists, this plan should be tossed in the trash bin because we do not want misinformation and needless "slop" to affect education, creativity, businesses, etc. Not a single word of that plan shall come through, and the higher-ups know it shouldn't either. We cannot let this pass.
