General Comment

If you do this you are killing any and all creative advantage America has, by letting these companies steal the work of honest Americans you will lose a workforce of creative thinkers. Our nation will be reduced to a regurgitating mill of cheap knockoffs like China. Protection of IP rights is imperative to a strong economy where creative thinking is rewarded. Anything short of protecting IP and copyright in The United States is a stab in the back to our nation's economy.

Letting US companies do this also means it's a free for all for our adversaries to do the same with American IP.
