General Comment

AI has no place in a healthy American society. It is a product built entirely on theft, and true democracies do not blindly mistake theft for innovation, creativity, or social good. We are all of us more impoverished for generative AI existing - it bankrupts industries, erodes trust in artists and media, and materially destroys everything it touches in its bottomless hunger for water, electricity, and computer hardware. The companies begging to be allowed to continue their mass theft unimpeded are visionless swindlers and snake oil salesmen looking to do nothing but siphon off as much wealth as they can, and are willing to hold the entirety of the tech industry hostage in order to do so. Do not capitulate!
