General Comment

AI shouldn't be allowed to steal people's art or data or whatever:(No one should be allowed to legally steal things:(Not cool:(If they want stuff to train stuff off of, then they should legally be required to use either public domain/fair use stuff or get people to agree to using their data for the purpose of training AI:) Legalizing the theft of everyone's data online hurts those that put time and effort that created it in the first place and really doesn't actually benefit anyone:(
