To whom it may concern,

My babe is Chelsea Heptig and this is a terrible idea. I do not believe AI holds a place in the future of the US. AI is actively making Americans dumber and removing the need for critical thinking and reading skills in our population.

AI steals from my livelihood as an American and profits off of theft of original works. This will set a precedence that copywrite means nothing anymore and content theft and copyright infringement will no longer be punishable by law.

AI is overhyped and is fleecing the eyes of the American public.
