

3/1/2025 via FDMS

John Arnold

In my opinion, if we are to use AI for military operations, there needs to be a human chain of responsibility (beginning, middle, end) for all AI actions in a operation. AI should never be allowed the ability to make operational decisions for itself beyond disengaging from combat.